5) Bye law 13 contains penal provisions and provides ~~for~~ for the imposition of a fine of Rs 5/- for each day for a continuing offence. There is no provision

Draft Bye-Laws relating to hotels etc in Tiptur Town Municipality in the Mysore Town Municipalities Act, 1933 to imposing a fine or any other penalty for a continuing offence under Section 48(1)(aa) of the Act, a municipal council may prescribe a fine not exceeding Rs 5 00/- for the infringement of a bye-law

b) It is therefore suggested that the words referring to further fine in this bye-law may be omitted and that the words and figure "Rs 100" be substituted to the words and figure "Rs 5 0". This would fix the maximum amount of fine to Rs 100 which is the existing maximum limit

7) In Schedule 'A' appended to the draft Bye-Laws, hotels, restaurants etc have been classified as of three categories, namely, those of the First class, Second class and Third class.
But how this classification has been arrived at, has not been specified. Such classifications are usually made on the basis of the annual earnings of the hotels those whose annual income exceeds certain specified amount belong to the First class and similarly in the case of hotels of the Second and Third

Sir,

With Reference to your letter No A 6 C 637/47-48 dated 1 10 48 on the above Subject, I am directed to observe that Bye-law 13 in the draft containing the penal provision provides for a fine of Rs 5/ each day for a continuing offence which is contrary to the provisions of the Act It is therefore necessary that the fine should be limited as required by the Act and not made dependant on whether the offence is a continuing (ie Rs 100/ both in the first and Continuing offence) one or not

Further, the Bye-laws [best the ——— (as now framed description in the precedent to classify these hotels into A, B and C and levy the fee accordingly it is considered desirable that the Bye laws themselves set out the criteria by which the classification has to be made

I am to request you to revise the Bye-laws in the light of the above observations and to submit the same for the orders of Govt
